Concert Band/Orchestral/Chamber Ensemble

Mark Adam

Mark has shared the stage and studio with many of Canada's leading artists. He is a professor at Acadia University and regularly appears as a guest presenter and educator for music festivals, universities, high schools and conferences across Canada.

Richard Burrows

Richard is a founding member of the TorQ Percussion Quartet. He holds two Masters degrees from the University of Toronto, and is an active adjudicator and clinician with a specialization in improvisation.

Frédéric Démers

Recognized by his peers as "one of Canada's leading trumpet and cornet players" (International Trumpet Guild), Frédéric is much in demand as a soloist with a variety of ensembles, principally since the 2008 release of his solo disc Carnaval et Concertos.

Wesley Ferreira

One of the prominent clarinetists of his generation, Wesley has been praised by critics for his "beautiful tone" and "technical prowess" (The Clarinet Journal) as well as his "remarkable sensitivity" (CAML Review). Fanfare Magazine notes he is "clearly a major talent."

Rod MacGillivray

Rod is a low brass performer and head teacher of the Brass & Percussion Department at the Maritime Conservatory of Performing Arts, director of the Mersey

Band in Liverpool, Nova Scotia, and is co-conductor of Scotia Brass.

Colleen Richardson

Colleen is Coordinator of Bands and directs the Wind Ensemble at Western University, the second largest music program in Canada. She is active as a clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor nationally and internationally.

Instrumental Jazz

Tom Easley

Tom has earned a reputation as one of Eastern Canada's finest jazz bassists. Two-time East Coast Music Award Winner, Maple Blues Winner and multiple award nominee, Tom is a faculty member at Nova Scotia Community College and St. FX University.

Kenji Omae

Kenji has been described as "a super-articulate virtuoso" (The Ottawa Citizen) and "may be the most exciting tenor saxophonist to emerge in Canada in recent years" (The WholeNote). He is currently on faculty at St. FX University where he teaches jazz improvisation, harmony, and history.

Dave Staples

Dave is a veteran performer and music educator and maintains a busy freelance career as a pianist, trombonist, composer, adjudicator and recording artist. He taught instrumental music with the Halifax Regional School Board for over 30 years and is co-founder and director of the Nova Scotia Honour Jazz program, which has worked with talented students of jazz in Nova Scotia for the last 25 years.

Halifax Featured Performers

Hogtown Brass Quintet

The Hogtown Brass Quintet is a Toronto-based chamber ensemble dedicated to pushing the boundaries of the traditional brass ensemble. Formed in 2013, HBQ is a collaboration among five accomplished and diverse musicians from a variety of musical backgrounds, ranging from Classical to pop to jazz. Already gaining attention with their unique arrangements, collaborations with vocalists and instrumentalists, along with their affinity for non-traditional performance spaces, the mandate of the HBQ is to bring brass chamber music to new audiences and to reinvigorate the classic brass ensemble. Their debut album Introducing... was nominated for a 2017 Toronto Independent Music Award.

Stadacona Band of the Royal Canadian Navy

The Stadacona Band of the Royal Canadian Navy is one of six regular force military bands serving the Canadian Forces. The band has always called Halifax its home and celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2015.

The Stadacona Band's 35 musicians can be found performing on a parade square, in a concert hall or at the dockyard welcoming naval vessels. Over the past 75 years the band's performances have been enjoyed by the Royal Family, the Prime Minister, foreign heads of state, military officials and the Canadian public. Whenever possible, the Stadacona Band makes its resources available to support other units of the military thus fulfilling their mandate to "provide musical support, fostering high morale, esprit de corps, and thus operational effectiveness."

Son Latino

Featuring dynamic musicians from Cuba, Colombia, Mexico, and Canada, Son Latino puts a unique cross-cultural spin on Latin American music. The band is a favorite live ensemble for salsa dancers and Latin music aficionados in Halifax. Their repertoire is a mixture of traditional and contemporary tunes from all over Latin America, and includes a range of compulsively danceable rhythms like salsa, merengue, cha cha, reggaeton, and more. With instrumentation similar to a Cuban septeto and a sound reminiscent of the great Buena Vista Social Club, Son Latino makes it impossible for audiences to sit still.
